

Redland Art Gallery specialises in presenting a balanced and varied exhibition program of innovative and traditional works that provide opportunities for residents and visitors to engage with the visual arts, craft and design and support representation of the Redlands' diverse culture and heritage.

Gallery volunteers are the Gallery's most vital asset and we are keen to hear from interested people dedicated to the arts.

Volunteers play an important role in the gallery by:

- providing information to gallery visitors
- reception and administration support
- assisting install and demount exhibitions
- conducting guided tours (school groups and visitors)
- assisting at gallery functions and events.

The Redland Art Gallery Volunteer Program works on a roster basis and most volunteers participate for a few hours twice a month depending on availability. Introductory and continuing training and information sessions are provided and opportunity exists for personal skills development. It is also a great way to make new friends and reconnect with old ones. If this sounds like something you would like to be involved in please fill in the attached registration form and return to:
